We Channel Aid

from Christians — through Christians — to Christians

100%

Our commitment to you is that every dollar of your donation will go to the project(s) you have chosen to help our suffering family.

Dear Friend,

As this catalog goes to print, Christians face grave danger in many places around the world. Afghan converts from Islam will be killed if they are discovered by the Taliban, who now rule their country. In northern Nigeria the anti-Christian violence continues unabated – murder, kidnapping, destruction of homes and livelihoods. In Myanmar the military government continues to bomb the Christian-majority ethnic groups. Barnabas Aid is involved in helping Christians in all these situations, including rescuing those in Afghanistan (see page 15).

Covid-19 has added new struggles to the existing distress and hardships borne by our persecuted Christian family. Whether the pandemic is still raging or the immediate danger has passed, the global church desperately needs our gifts of love, hope and comfort.

Jesus commanded us to “love one another” (John 13:34) by faithfully and unstintingly caring for our brothers and sisters. Whatever the future brings, Barnabas Aid is committed, by the grace of God and the generosity of our supporters, to provide for the needs of persecuted and impoverished Christians across the world.

Deliver God’s Promises

Your gifts of love, hope and comfort will wonderfully deliver God’s promises to His suffering people who face discrimination, pressure, violence and even death because of their faith. Through prayer and by practical aid, we can help them in their time of greatest need.

Supporting Barnabas Aid through your gifts and prayers for the areas of need you will read about in the following pages is a powerful way you can transform and invest in the lives of fellow believers.

In this catalog you will find some of the most effective ways that you, your small group or your church can make a real and practical difference to Christians facing persecution, discrimination and poverty for owning the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ as their Savior.

These suggested gifts could make a thoughtful alternative birthday or Christmas present. We can also supply an attractive gift card to send to the person on whose behalf you have made the donation. For details of the different gift cards available, see page iv in the center of this booklet.

Regular giving allows us to plan strategically and respond quickly to urgent situations, and also helps to keep our administrative costs low. Our regular donations form can be found on page iii.

Yours Sincerely in Christ,

JOHN MARSH

Barnabas Aid USA Chairman

FEED

Help Feed Marginalized Christians Around the World

who are hungry because they live in poverty due to anti-Christian discrimination.

Our regular feeding program in Pakistan sustains hundreds of families, including widows and children, who have little other means of support.

“Jesus replied, ‘They do not need to go away. You give them something to eat.’” – Matthew 14:16

Hunger is rife among many Christian communities around the world. Believers are often the poorest and lowest in societies that treat them with hostility simply because they trust in Christ, and as such they are among the most acutely affected by food poverty. We provide food for hungry Christians in many countries so they can get the nourishment they need.

In India, a land that has suffered more than most from Covid-19, we have supported church leaders and workers, as well as other Christians, whose incomes dried up when lockdown took away their jobs. Many were bereaved, the economic impact of losing a husband or father compounding their grief.

Our project partners described how, thanks to your gifts, Barnabas Aid is “wiping away the tears of many families during this pandemic and turning their sorrow to joy ... It is the Lord’s doing; and indeed, we all are blessed together.”

We have also helped Covid-affected Christians in many other countries.

could provide a food parcel for a persecuted Christian family in Uzbekistan lasting up to three months.

$27

could feed a needy Pakistani Christian widow and her children for a month.

You could also consider supporting our new food.gives initiative. Please see page 22 for more information about how you can send food to our hungry brothers and sisters.

CARE

You Can Care for Vulnerable Christian Communities

by providing essential access to health care and medicines.

Barnabas Aid has helped equip Indian hospitals as they care for the sick, both during and after the Covid-19 pandemic.

“Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of compassion and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our troubles, so that we can comfort those in any trouble with the comfort we ourselves receive from God.”

– 2 Corinthians 1:3,4

In 2021 a highly infectious strain of Covid-19 overwhelmed India, producing “a health and economic crisis of unprecedented proportions and a collapse of the health infrastructure,” as an Indian Christian doctor wrote to Barnabas Aid. Christian hospitals were desperately short of supplies, even PPE. Many lacked sufficient equipment and the machines needed to provide oxygen to their patients – and even if they had the medical machines, they did not necessarily have enough power to run them all at the same time.

Coordinated by an emergency task force of Indian Christian medical ministries that Barnabas brought together, we have provided PPE kits and extra electricity generators for Christian hospitals across India as well as fully equipping a new, 10-bed Covid Care Center in Gujarat with everything from sheets and mattresses to oxygen concentrators and a crash cart.

Even if the virus itself recedes, hospitals in India and elsewhere will be in desperate need of support to continue caring for Christians who need medical attention. In Pakistan we are funding the set-up and running of clinics to serve the needs of the impoverished Christian community. In Nigeria and elsewhere we are supporting Christians who require medical care after suffering violent attacks.

could buy a stethoscope for use in a Christian clinic in Pakistan.

$33

could fund the daily running costs of a health clinic in Pakistan serving the needs of around 400 Christian patients each month.

$45

could buy 10 personal protective gowns for hospital staff in Indonesia.

$232

could pay for 1 oxygen cylinder (type D) in India.

ENCOURAGE

Encourage and Provide Spiritual Sustenance to our persecuted brothers and sisters.

A Russian-language New Testament funded by Barnabas for believers in Russia and Ukraine.

“You, Lord, hear the desire of the afflicted; you encourage them, and you listen to their cry, defending the fatherless and the oppressed, so that mere earthly mortals will never again strike terror.”

– Psalm 10:17-18

Many Christians around the world lack the spiritual resources so readily available to believers in the West. At Barnabas Aid we want to provide the means by which our brothers and sisters can be spiritually nourished and encouraged.

A recent Barnabas-supported project in a Central Asian country has produced for the first time a New Testament translated from the original Greek text. Prior to this, Christians in this country had to rely upon a Bible translated from Russian and written in a clunky, inaccessible style. Believers have said that the new translation allows them to develop a deeper understanding of God’s Word – one pastor reported that never before had he been able to mine such spiritual riches from the New Testament Epistles and the Book of Revelation.

Barnabas Aid supports pastors and evangelists working in their own countries or people-groups in some of the most difficult parts of the world. Yohanes is one of 40 church planters being supported in Indonesia, the largest Muslim-majority country in the world. The church pastored by Yohanes now consists of 32 adults and 14 children.

Barnabas Aid also facilitates Christian worship, teaching spiritual growth and other ministry by equipping, renovating and constructing church buildings. In Kazakhstan a congregation that previously had faced repeated opposition in trying to rent places in which to meet has, thanks to your donations, added to the offerings of the poor believers there, been able finally to construct its own building.

could pay for the printing of a New Testament in a Central Asian country.

$34

could help support a church planter for a month in Indonesia.

$150

could pay for a window to be fitted in a church building for a persecuted congregation in Kazakhstan.

LEARN

Give the Next Generation of Children and Young People

the opportunity to learn and equip them for the future.

Barnabas Aid has enabled the renovation of a school building for Sudanese Christian refugees in Egypt, including the improvements made to classrooms such as this.

“For I know the plans I have for you,’ declares the Lord, ‘plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.’” – Jeremiah 29:11

It is sadly common for poor and persecuted Christians to struggle to access education or training which would allow them to have a better life. Barnabas Aid supports schools, literacy and numeracy programs, apprenticeships and vocational training, and higher education for Christians in many different contexts of pressure and harassment.

A Barnabas-supported school in Bethlehem enables even the poorest Christian children to receive a good education in a loving Christian environment. Among the pupils is 11-year-old Maria Jaraiseh, whose father died five years ago. Maria says that she and her brothers would have been “lost” without the loving care and support of Christian staff: “Thank you from my heart for providing our school.”

Kainat, a young woman in the Lahore area of Pakistan, is a Barnabas-supported apprentice mechanic. Like many Pakistani Christians, her parents only have irregular, low-paid work, and Kainat was forced to drop out of school when they could no longer afford the fees. Now Kainat is an apprentice beautician. She hopes with her new-found skills to find better-paying work with which she will be able to support her family and community, while working in a safe, all-female environment.

$2.70

could help provide a month's education for a Christian child at a very simple, basic school in Pakistan.

$12

could provide one month of support for a Christian apprentice learning a trade in Pakistan.

$46

provides a month of quality education for a young Christian in Bethlehem.

Mission Statement

The mission of Barnabas Aid is to support Christians where they are in a minority and suffer discrimination, oppression and persecution as a consequence of their faith. Our goal is to strengthen Christian individuals, churches and their communities by providing material and spiritual support in response to needs identified by local Christian leaders.

We do this by making their needs known to Christians around the world, and encouraging prayer, advocacy and financial giving in support of these brothers and sisters in Christ, working with existing local Christian organizations.

Barnabas Aid channels this flow from donors to the needy recipients with minimum overheads. All gifts are monitored to ensure they are used in line with the stated need.

In accordance with Biblical teaching, we believe that Christians should treat all people of all faiths with love and compassion, even those who persecute them.

Blessed to Be a Blessing to Others

Bringing hope and a future to this and the next generation of believers

Blessed to Be a Blessing to Our Christian Family All Over the World

God blessed Abraham so he could in turn be a blessing to others (Genesis 12:2). Not just members of his own family, tribe, city or nation, but all the peoples of the earth. After you have taken care of your loved ones in your will, please consider widening your care to those who belong to your extended family -- that is, your Christian brothers and sisters worldwide.

“Carry each other’s burdens, and in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ”
– Galatians 6:2

What Kind of Blessing Can You Pass On to Others?

A legacy gift (that is, a gift included in your will) can:

- Feed Christians facing hunger and deprivation; disadvantaged for belonging to the family of God
- Help believers who have suffered violence for their faith
- Give shelter to displaced Christian families fleeing persecution in their homeland
- Support an evangelist or pastor facing daily danger in their ministry in regions where Christians are a persecuted minority
- Strengthen Christian brothers and sisters with Bibles in their own language
- Train young children up in their faith through Christian schooling

Wording of a Legacy Gift in Your Will

If you would like to remember Barnabas Aid in your will, you can make a bequest specifying the share of your assets, or the absolute value you would like to pass on to us. You can give a specific amount, leave a percentage of your estate*, or donate the residue of your assets once other distributions have been made. Please be sure to include the name and address of Barnabas Aid (80 Abbeyville Road, Lancaster, PA 17603) in your will, and also our FEIN number (16-1711227), and any preference regarding how the donated amount is to be used.

If your estate is complicated, or if you are unsure how to word your will, it may be worth taking professional advice and utilizing the services of a specialized attorney or legal advisor.

Please Do Remember to Help Your Christian Family When You Come to Plan for Your Future

If you would like more information about how to leave a gift to Barnabas Aid through your will, or get help with writing a will, please email usa@barnabasaid.org, call 703-288-1681, or fill out the form in the center of this booklet and send it to: Barnabas Aid, 80 Abbeyville Road, Lancaster, PA 17603, USA

PROTECT

You Can Help Protect Christians

struggling to survive natural disasters, regional conflict and anti-Christian violence, especially providing critical aid for the most vulnerable of all – children, elderly, widows, orphans and converts.

Barnabas Aid is providing ePap, rich in vitamins and minerals, to nourish Christian families displaced by Islamist violence in Mozambique.

“When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; and when you pass through the rivers, they will not sweep over you. When you walk through the fire, you will not be burned; the flames will not set you ablaze.” – Isaiah 43:2

“We have been constantly on the move, hiding from place to place. No house to live in, no work, nothing left. I did not see any future for my family, and we were so tired to run, to hide and live in constant fear.” These are the words of “Maun” (not his real name), a displaced Myanmar Christian, husband and father of four. Hiding in the jungle, this family has barely enough food to live on – because of poor nutrition and exhaustion, the mother cannot even breastfeed her 1 month-old baby.

Our project partners in Myanmar work hard to find families hiding in secret, to provide for them the help they need, using aerial drones to discover their location. IDPs are given food such as rice, oil and canned fish, other essentials including medicines, clothes and baby powder, as well as blankets, mats and tarpaulins as a means of constructing some sort of shelter. Relief workers also share God’s Word, providing believers with Bibles in their own language.

“Today is a happy day for my family,” said Maun. “You brought us so many blessings ... we had left everything behind. I thought it was impossible for people to find us, but I think this is a miracle from God.”

In some parts of the world, Christians suffer from serious hunger, even famine. Southern Madagascar had not had a rainy season for two years when famine took hold in December 2020. The rains finally came in early 2021, but an infestation of caterpillars destroyed the corn crop. People were dying of hunger, but Barnabas sent food.

could buy a sleeping mat for a displaced family in Nigeria.

$7.20

could provide 4 lbs. of ePap to give a week’s nourishment to a Mozambican family of 6 displaced by Islamist violence.

$22

could provide 49 lbs. of rice to feed two displaced Christian families in Myanmar for a month.

$85

could pay for a bundle of roofing shingles to repair a house destroyed by anti-Christian violence in Nigeria.

$1,500

could pay for flights and visas for an Afghan Christian family to escape Afghanistan.

SUSTAIN

Help us Sustain Marginalized Christian Communities with small business and vital infrastructure support including access to clean water, renewable energy and safe, dry homes.

A solar-powered tube well provided by Barnabas Aid for a persecuted Christian community in Sri Lanka.

“Cast your cares on the Lord and he will sustain you; he will never let the righteous be shaken.”
– Psalm 55:22

Many Christians live in precarious circumstances, lacking permanent and sustainable access to food and water, shelter, or employment. Emergency aid to address acute needs is always necessary, but at Barnabas Aid we want to provide sustainability for Christians, equipping them in the long term with access to the necessities of life and providing them with hope for the future.

Barnabas is helping poor Christian women, such as vulnerable widows in Egypt, with opportunities to set up their own small business including hairdressing, sewing, poultry raising and baking. These generate a valuable source of income for their families, providing for essential needs, improving diet and health as well as sending children to school. They can even save a little money for a future emergency need.

Enterprising Trez took action when her husband, a construction carpenter, could not meet all the family’s needs despite working hard every day. With a loan provided by Barnabas she bought an electric mixer, and started a micro-enterprise baking and selling pies in her village. As the business grew, Trez was able to buy a new oven and sell her pies wholesale to local churches and other local businesses. During the Covid-19 crisis, her business could carry on and helped her family survive when her husband lost his job.

could provide a goat or sheep for a displaced Christian widow in Cameroon.

$157

could pay for the installation of a tube well for a community of Christians displaced by violence in Bangladesh.

$327

could provide funds for a struggling Christian family (many headed by widows) in Egypt to start up a sustainable micro-business.

LEAD

Help Equip Those Who Will Lead the Church in regions of pressure and persecution with training and discipleship programs.

Barnabas Aid finances training for church leaders in parts of the world where pastors, ministers and other leaders lack a pastoral or theological education.

“And the things you have heard me say in the presence of many witnesses entrust to reliable people who will also be qualified to teach others.”
– 2 Timothy 2:2

In many parts of the world, church leaders lack the necessary training and instruction to teach and pastor the Christians under their care. Barnabas supports theological and ministry training at all levels so that Christian leaders are equipped to care for and support the Lord’s people.

Barnabas Aid provided the means for a church in Kazakhstan to hold a training conference for the leaders of home churches (small groups of Christian converts from Islam, who cannot meet to pray and worship except in homes). Those most closely responsible for the teaching and pastoral care of Christians were supported in their vital ministry to teach adults and children.

“Our church has become stronger,” said a Kazakh church pastor. “The leaders of the home churches were renewed in their vocation to serve ... thank you very much for responding to our request to help and that you found this project worthy of attention.”

In South Asia, where many church leaders have died from Covid-19, the training of new pastors and teachers will be one of the pressing needs of the near future.

$13.70

could pay for a church leader in a deprived area of Egypt to attend a one-day Bible study and pastoral training school.

$76

could pay for a Bangladeshi Christian leader to attend a week’s training course in discipleship, mission or Bible study.

$95

could pay for a church leader in Kazakhstan to attend a three-day conference about small-group ministry.

The Shepherd's Academy

The Shepherd's Academy will make formal theological and pastoral education more widely available across the Global South for those in Christian ministry who have had no opportunity for training before.

The Shepherd's Academy (TSA) is one way in which we are responding to the need to provide training and support to church leaders across the world. It is estimated that some 2 million pastors and church ministers in the Global South have no formal theological training.

TSA provides church leaders with the skills and knowledge needed to empower them in their ministry.

As well as the spiritual benefits of Christian leaders undertaking such training, there are practical reasons to do so; increasingly, national governments require that church leaders have formal relevant qualifications in order to lawfully engage in ministry.

Launched in June, TSA provides online pastoral and theological training that is relevant to the particular needs of Christians in non-Western contexts. Learning can be conducted while students continue to serve their churches, providing maximum benefit to both Christian leaders and the church as a whole.

could sponsor a student

$5,000

could provide the infrastructure for a local theological institution to equip itself with the hardware and running The Shepherd's

LIVING STREAMS

Commit to a monthly gift to sustain and strengthen persecuted Christians.

Schools supported through Living Streams provide education, spiritual nourishment and fun with friends for thousands of poor Pakistani Christian children.

Barnabas invites you to pledge a monthly gift to become part of an essential, continuous life-flow to needy Christians living with pressure and persecution across the world. Through Living Streams, you can take action by committing on a regular basis to sustaining and strengthening persecuted Christians.

You can join Living Streams by giving any regular amount, large or small.

Barnabas will give regular news updates to all those who give regular support by joining Living Streams. If you choose to sponsor a child or sustain a family, we will send you a prayer card with a photograph and details of the persecuted believers you are helping.

Join Living Streams or find out more by visiting barnabasaid.org/get-involved/living-streams, or by contacting us at usa@barnabasaid.org or 703-288-1681.

By joining Living Streams, you can:

- sustain a Christian family living in poverty with monthly food parcels (suggested amount: $30 per month*).
- support an evangelist or pastor in their ministry (suggested amount: $40 per month*).
- sponsor a Christian child throughout their school years and see them grow in the Lord (suggested amount: $25 per month*).
- strengthen suffering Christians through the grace of God's Word by investing in the gift of a Bible each month (suggested amount: $7 per month*).

Please note that we cannot normally arrange for the exchange of letters between a donor and those they are sponsoring. This is because of security issues in areas of persecution and to keep down administration costs, so that we can maximize the help given to needy Christians.

*Suggested amounts are based on typical costs, but you can join Living Streams by giving any amount.

food.gives

Many thousands of our brothers and sisters are at risk of starvation. Could you help hungry Christians across the world who desperately need our help?

This is how it works:

1. Pay for the food.

2. We will ship it.

3. Families eat.

"Whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me" (Matthew 25:40)

In June, Barnabas Aid launched food.gives, our major new initiative to help hungry, poor and persecuted Christians around the world. Using our long-established and trusted network of Barnabas Aid partner churches, we can now channel not just your generous financial donations, but also dry food from Christians in the West, through Christians, to hungry Christians in places of pressure and persecution.

Will you join others who are paying for basic, non-perishable food that will travel thousands of miles to Christians in destinations across the world who need our help?

Please contact us at 703-288-1681 or usa@barnabasaid.org, or visit www.food.gives, to see how you can help by committing to providing food as an individual or family, or perhaps as a church, a Bible study group, or a Sunday school class.

You could also be a representative of food.gives in your church, encouraging your church family to donate to your global Christian family.

If you live near to our office in Lancaster, Pennsylvania, we are accepting donations of food from the list of non-perishable food items on the food.gives website.

About Barnabas Aid

As part of the family of God, Barnabas Aid stands with our Christian brothers and sisters around the world, including the West, wherever they suffer discrimination, oppression or persecution as a result of their faith. In this way we witness to the love of Christ and build His Kingdom.

1. We channel money from Christians, through Christians, to Christians. Donations from individuals and churches are forwarded to local ministries and Christian organizations in contexts of persecution, mainly in Muslim-majority environments, to bring about practical and spiritual transformation in the lives of suffering believers.

2. We encourage prayer for the persecuted church by providing comprehensive prayer materials. We believe in the power of prayer to change people's lives and circumstances, either through grace to endure or through deliverance from suffering.

3. We tell the untold story about the plight of persecuted Christians and speak out on their behalf, making their needs known to Christians around the world and to governments and international bodies.

We seek to tackle persecution at its root by making known the aspects of religious and secular ideologies that result in injustice and oppression of Christians and others. We also equip Christians in the West to meet the challenge that other religions pose to the church, its mission and society.

We believe the clear Biblical teaching that Christians should treat all people of all religions, and none, with love and compassion, even those who seek to persecute them. We carry out our vision and purpose accordingly, but we will not compromise what we believe the Word of God teaches.

“As we have opportunity, let us do good to all people, especially to those who belong to the family of believers” (Galatians 6:10, NIV, emphasis added).
